The New Colossus

Emma Lazarus (1883)

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame,

With conquering limbs astride

from land to land;

Here at our sea-washed,

sunset gates shall stand

A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame

Is the imprisoned lightning, and her name

Mother of Exiles. From her beacon-hand

Glow world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command

The air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame.

“Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!” cries she

With silent lips. “Give me your tired, your poor,

Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,

The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.

Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me,

I lift my lamp beside the golden door!”

» Thank You «

Thank you so much for your generous contribution to Habitat for Humanity of Northern Columbiana County. As we begin our new building season, we are so blessed to have friends like you supporting our efforts to build a simple decent house for a family in need. We are excited to begin this house in partnership with the Kent State School of Architecture and College of Construction Management, and encourage you to visit the site at 274 Ridge Street in Leetonia. Do not hesitate to bring a hammer and join in too! Again, thank you for your generosity.

Sincerely,
 Barb Loudon

My mom, Dolores Kynett, appreciates the phone calls, cards, and prayers. She especially appreciates being a member of this church.

From The Presbyterian Messenger, July 14, 2003

Dear Presbyterians,
Thirteen other people and I recently returned from our 2003 senior high school mission trip to Mexico. Participating in the trip were John Stoffer, Sharlene and Brandon Harrison, Carol, Anthony, and Anna Marie Ricciardi, Ben and Amanda Kar-mazin, Corey Kuhns, Dan Blackburn, Meghan Honeywell, and Andrew and Emily Loudon. I offer my sincere thanks to the adult leadership and my deep appreciation to the kids for their wide-eyed enthusiasm. Cordially, Brian Jensen

TAKE THIS TEST

“Hold this close to your lips and blow. If the square turns green, call your doctor. If it turns brown, see your dentist. If it turns purple, see your psychiatrist. If it turns red, see your banker. If it turns black, call your lawyer and make a will. If it remains the same color, you are in good health, and there is no reason on Earth why you should not be in church next Sunday.
